

"To Heal the Whole Family by Making a Better Tomorrow!!!"

Position: Volunteer Teacher Assistant

Location: 1920 Old Springville Road Center Point, AL 35215

Time Commitment: Recurring opportunities on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Organization: Community Center for Development and Network (CCDN)

Department: Education Support Services - Inspire Education Academy

About CCDN: CCDN is dedicated to providing essential education support services to youth and young adults who have faced obstacles in completing their high school education, including those who are court-involved and have life barriers. Our programs aim to empower these individuals through education, mentorship, employment assistance, and life development.

Position Overview: We are seeking dedicated volunteer Teacher Assistants to support the Inspire Education Academy. As a Teacher Assistant, you will play a vital role in helping nontraditional students achieve their educational goals. You will work closely with the teaching staff to assist and support students in various aspects of their education journey, including life skills development, job skills training, GED or high school credit recovery, and more.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist the teaching staff in classroom activities, lessons, and workshops.
- Provide one-on-one or small group support to students who may require extra help.
- Assist in preparing educational materials and resources.
- Foster a positive and inclusive learning environment for all students.
- Encourage and motivate students to actively engage in their educational pursuits.
- Help students with their life development, job skills, and job connections.
- Support students in GED or high school credit recovery programs.
- Collaborate with mentors and other support staff to ensure students' overall success.

Qualifications:

- Passion for education and a strong desire to make a difference in the lives of nontraditional students.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Patience, empathy, and the ability to work with diverse student populations.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and respect for students' privacy.
- Previous teaching or tutoring experience is a plus but not required.
- Willingness to complete any required training or background checks.

Benefits:

- Opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the lives of youth and young adults.
- Gain valuable experience in education support and mentorship.
- Work in a supportive and collaborative environment.
- Potential for personal and professional growth.

How to Apply: If you are passionate about helping nontraditional students succeed and are available Mondays and Wednesdays or Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm, we invite you to apply for this volunteer position. Please send your resume and a brief cover letter expressing your interest and availability to programs@ccommunitycaresdn.org.

Thank you for considering volunteering with CCDN's Education Support Services. Your dedication and support will help empower young individuals on their journey towards a brighter future.
